U. S. EYES ROLE IN MANCHURIA

Wedemeyer Seeks Lowdown
on Duties in Russian Zone; Hits Discrimination.

By The Associated Press
SHANGHAI, March 9.—Lt. Gen.
Albert C. Wedemeyer said today
he has "taken appropriate steps"
as theater commander to ascertain his responsibility in Manchuria.
Replying to correspondents
questions at a press conference,
the China theater commander said Manchuria always has been considered part of his command,
that vast northeastern Chinese territory still is largely Russian dominated.
Asked what his responsibility
regarding the repatriation of Japanese in Manchuria, Wedemeyer declined to reply, stating that even Secretary of State Byrnes had given "no clearcut answer" to that.
He said the Soviet commandant of Dairen had refused to honor credentials of China theater correspondents. Wedemeyer said that during his 18 months as commander he had not discriminated among newsmen of all nationalities, "and I think my correspondents should receive the same treatment from other countries and other generals."

WARD-STILSON EXPAND PLANT

Lease of North Main St. Building To Treble Production Capacity.

The Ward-Stilson Co. of 138
South Prospect street, manufacturers of "Magnetic Frocks," is now installing new machinery and equipment in the former Neuman Cigar Co. building at North Main and George streets.
Acquisition of the building
under lease will more than treble production capacity and will give the company an approximate 27, 000 square feet of floor space in its two buildings. Robert Gentry, manager of the plant, said today
that the company would continue operations at both locations.
Operations at the new plant are expected to start about April 1, at which time about 175 additional women will be employed.
When all new machinery has arrived and production reaches its peak, about 350 women will be employed, Mr. Gentry said. The company employs 125 women at its present plant.
Under the proposed expansion
program new cutting rooms and other installations will be made.
During the war the old cigar company building was used as headquarters for the Hunkin-Conkey Co. contractors for the Scioto Ordnance Plant. Later it was occupied by the Goodrich Tire and Rubber Co. for the manufacture of rubber life rafts.

CALL MEETING FOR ACTION ON SCHOOL PLANS

Public Invited for Discussion of Revised Program Monday Night.

The revised Marion school program will be up for full discussion at a public meeting in Central Junior High school auditorium at 7:30 p. m. Monday.
Every one interested in improving the Marion public school system has been invited to attend
by officers of the Marion Civic Planning Group.
The Planning Group is sponsoring the campaign for a $2,100, 000 bond issue to be presented to voters of the school district at the May 7 primaries. The new revised program replaces the one defeated by 26 votes in the recent election last fall.
In the last November election
voters passed bond issues for sewer improvements and a new municipal airport and defeated
issues for schools, swimming pools
and a city hall.
Ready for Action
The program as it now stands
has been worked out since last November by the city board of education and the research committee of the Planning Group.
Monday night it will be up for consideration and adoption as the pledged program of the board of education and Planning Group
for the improvement of the school system.
The Monday night meeting is being called for the entire membership of the Planning Group
and will be open to all interested residents of the school district.
The district includes all the city
proper and certain adjacent areas
that send pupils to the city schools.
J. B. Bray, who with Ellis Diller
is co-chairman of the Planning Group, will preside at the meeting. The program will open with music by the Harding High school
pep band.
Speakers Chosen
Various phases of the program
will be discussed by civic, industrial and business leaders.
Subjects and the speakers are as follows:
"What Has Been Done with the Issues Passed in the Last Election," Harold J. Gribbs;
"Why Do We Need New Schools?"
Howard F. Guthrie; "Rehabilitation," Wilson B. Tway.
"The New Junior High School
on North State Street," Miss Phyllis Gregg; "The New Junior-Senior High School and Site," H. Alfred Donihue;
"The New Gymnasium," Dr. A.
J. Wagner; "The New Auditorium," Robert T. Mason; "The Vocational Program," Albert C.
May and C. W. Gabler; "Reindeer
Cost and Use of Program as an Employment Backlog," Francis
B. Huber;
"The Tax Picture Now and Then," Marion E. Hinkley; "Relationship of School to the Future
of Marion," Henry A. Krikbaum;
"Veteran's Angle," Robert R.
Bush; "Why Is This the Time To Do It?" Ben T. Wiant; "Advantages to Girls and Boys As Well
As Teachers of Modern Schools," T. D. Bain; "Cultural Advantages of a Good School Program," Rev.

England Joins in Demand for Bulgaria Shift

British Also Call for Broader Government as Reds Hurl
Charges at U. S.

By The Associated Press
LONDON, March 9.—A foreign office spokesman said today Britain supported a United States demand that Bulgaria's government
be broadened to include two members of the opposition before British-American recognition is accorded the Sofia regime.
The spokesman said Richard Tollinton, Britain's acting representative in Sofia, had informed the Bulgarian government several days ago that Britain was sanctioning herself with the U. S. memorandum of Feb. 12.
He said Tollinton had kept the foreign office "fully informed" of political activities in Bulgaria and added that there was "nothing to indicate" that the American representative in Sofia, Maynard Barnes, had exerted pressure on the Bulgarian opposition.
The spokesman explained, however, that both Tollinton and Barnes had been trying to bring about a stabilization of the Bulgarian political situation so that the country could be accorded British-American recognition.
Follows Russian Blast
The spokesman's disclosure of Britain's stand followed Russia's protest that the United States communication to Bulgaria "infringes" a decision of the Big Three foreign ministers and has caused the opposition to the Bulgarian government to "sabotage"
the three-power agreement.
The accusations, contained in a Soviet note to the U. S., were broadcast last night by the Moscow radio. The broadcast said the note was handed to the U. S. state department earlier this week.
The Bulgarian decision, drafted
in Moscow last December, declared that the United States and Britain would recognize Bulgaria
after her cabinet had been broadened to include two members of opposition groups. The agreement was approved by U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, Russian Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.
Basis of Complaint
The Russian broadcast asserted that the "United States government statement infringes the Moscow decision" because it informs Bulgaria that the new opposition members should participate in the government under "conditions
mutually acceptable" to the government and the opposition.
The decision actually said nothing about "any mutually acceptable condition," Moscow asserted.
(Bulgarian opposition parties are reported to have declined
"figurehead" positions in the cabinet, stating they would join the government only if assured they would have real powers.)
The broadcast version of the Russian note also asserted that Maynard B. Barnes, U. S. representative in Bulgaria, "has systematically instigated the Bulgarian opposition not to act in accordance with the three-minister decision, but to put forward new conditions for joining the Bulgarian government—conditions not provided for by the Moscow conference."
"The Soviet government has before now drawn attention of the U. S. government" to Barnes activities, it added.
The broadcast said the U. S. had sent its communication to Bulgaria Feb. 22 and had informed Russia of its contents Feb. 27.
"Far from taking steps to further the fulfillment of the decision reached by the Moscow conference," the U. S., "impels the opposition (in Bulgaria) to sabotage

REDS CHARGE U. S. SABOTAGE OF BIG 3 PACT

Washington Awaiting Byrnes
Reply as New Tension Hits
Major Powers.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, March 9.—A
new tension beset troubled Russo-American relations today with Radio Moscow charging the United States violated a Big Three agreement on Bulgaria and is working to sabotage it.
The state department has not yet acknowledged receipt of the sharp note from the Kremlin, but the Soviet broadcast reported it already had been delivered, and responsible officials here said privately that a reply already was being drafted.
The development capped an uneasy week which already has seen
the United States register protests with Moscow on the situation in Iran and Manchuria, in line with the new sterner policy
for international relations.
A state department spokesman said there probably would be no
official comment on the Soviet blast until Secretary Byrnes returns to Washington from his week-end vacation.
How It Developed
The Bulgarian affair developed
this way:
At the Moscow conference of foreign ministers, it was agreed Russia should give "friendly advice" to Bulgaria to broaden its Communist-dominated government with addition of two members from opposition parties.
Oppositionists decided cabinet posts subsequently offered, however, on grounds they would be mere figureheads with no real power.
Thereupon, the Bulgarian government—with Russian backing—
declared it had no further responsibility for carrying out the Moscow decision.
In a communication to Bulgaria
made public Tuesday, the United States sided with the Bulgarian oppositionists.
The communication said the U.
S. held the view that the participation of the oppositionists should be under conditions acceptable to both the government and the opposition.
Delivered Wednesday
Nikolai V. Novikov, charge
d'affaires of the Soviet embassy, delivered a note on the Bulgarian problem to Byrnes Wednesday.
Byrnes declined to disclose its contents at his news conference
yesterday, but last night the Moscow radio put out what purported to be the substance.
It said the U. S. message to Bulgaria urged opposition leaders to seek "disruption" of the Moscow agreement and charged this country had acted "unilaterally."

NEW LEGION POST FORMED AT WALDO

Second Organized in County
Since War's Close.

A second new American Legion post has been organized in Marion county and is located at Waldo.
County Legion officers reported today. It is composed of many World War II veterans along with veterans of the first World War.
The new post, named Porter-Snyder Post No. 605, Waldo, was organized by C. C. Conklin, a veteran of World War I, and is being directed by him as commander
following election of officers at their first meeting Thursday night.
Named for the two servicemen
from Waldo who were killed in action, Pfc. Beecher E. Porter and Cpl. John D. Snyder, the post received its charter the first of the week following a meeting Saturday in Columbus of the state executive committee of the Legion.
Pfc. Porter died in action Sept.
17, 1943, of wounds suffered in the North African area four days earlier. Cpl. Snyder was killed in action June 29, 1944.
The post was chartered with 76
members and more are expected to join in the near future. They will hold their meetings the first and third Thursday of each month
in the K. of P. hall in Waldo.
Elected to direct the post with
C. C. Conklin were R. E. Copeland, first vice commander, World War I and II veteran; Robert
Willey, second vice commander,
World War II veteran; Arthur
Reynolds, adjutant, World War
II; Clyde Porterfield, treasurer,
World War I; Woodrow Wilson
Kaelber, chaplain, World War II;
Melvin Bernow, historian, World War II; and Ralph Mack, sergeant
at arms, World War II.
The state executive committee of the Legion reported that they granted charters at their meeting
Saturday to 13 new posts in Ohio,
this making a total of 47 new posts in the state. Ohio now has 616 American Legion posts.

Cardinal Glennon Dies at 83

By The Associated Press
DUBLIN, March 9.—John Cardinal
Glennon, archbishop of St.
Louis and the oldest of 32 cardinals elevated to the purple two weeks ago during consistories at Vatican City, died here at 8:51 a.
m. (2:51 a. m. EST) today at the home of Sean O'Kelly, president of Eire. He was 83 years old.
The death was announced at O'Kelly's residence.
The Irish-born prelate succumbed from complications which followed a congestion of the lungs.
His death reduced the membership of the Sacred College of Cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church to 32.
Plans for the funeral were incomplete, but Msgr. Cody said "It is thought his eminence's body will be taken back to St. Louis for burial in the cathedral," which was built under the prelate's direction.
The passing of the cardinal was announced by Msgr. John P. Cody, chancellor of the St. Louis diocese.
Plans for the funeral were incomplete, but Msgr. Cody said "It

Arson Expert Probes Queen Elizabeth Fire

By The Associated Press
SOUTHAMPTON, England, March 9.—Guards against wartime strength were posted about the great port of Southampton today as an arson expert boarded
the Queen Elizabeth to investigate a fire which damaged the world's biggest ocean liner.
Police and shipping companies posted extra guards. Some shipping lines ordered all employees to show identity cards before approaching the docks where a dozen great liners will be lying in port
over the week-end.
The Elizabeth's Atlantic running mate, the 81,000-ton Queen Mary, also will be in port over the week-end, along with the Ile De France, the Aquitania, the Pasteur and the Athleta Castle.

Pope Pius Grieves Over Glennon Death

By The Associated Press
VATICAN CITY, March 9.—
Pope Pius XII expressed deep sorrow today at the death of John Cardinal Glennon.
Words of sorrow and sympathy

CARDINAL GLENNON
also was uttered by Vatican prelates and laymen who had contacted with the venerable St. Louis cardinal during the recent consistories. The news of the card-

FIRE DESTROYS HOME OF MAN BURIED WEDNESDAY

David Schaber, Resident, Burns
Near New Bloomington.

Special to The Star
NEW BLOOMINGTON, March 9.—A fire of an undetermined origin at the home of the late David Schaber, east of New Bloomington, Friday afternoon, destroyed the structure of the house and the furnishings. Mr.
Schaber was buried Wednesday
afternoon in Forest Glen Memorial Park following his death at his home Sunday night.
The widow, Mrs. Mary Schaber,
and daughter, Miss Grace Schaber,
were in Marion at the time.
They had been gone from the home since 8:30 that morning.
Clarence Schaber, a half-brother of Mr. Schaber, discovered the fire while working in the field near there. The LaRue and New Bloomington fire departments
were called but were unable to control the fire. The house was partly covered by insurance.

38 DIE AS ENGLISH GRANDSTAND FALLS

By The Associated Press
BOLTON, ENG., March 9.—A grandstand collapsed during a championship soccer match here
today. The press association reported that 38 persons were killed.
The game continued while ambulances carried casualties from the stadium.
A woman ambulance worker
said: "so many people have been crushed that the situation in dealing with casualties has become most difficult."
The brigade and police patrol vehicles assisted the fleet of ambulances carrying the dead and injured to Bolton hospital.
The record crowd which jammed
Bolton park stadium, in the English midlands, twice had caused a halt in the game while police cleared spectators from the field.

SEES NO ANTI-LOAN BLOC

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, March 9.—Senator Barkley (D-Ky.) said today
there is apparently no organized opposition to the proposed $2,750,000,000 credit to Britain. At any rate, he told reporters, the senate banking committee has had no requests from such opposition.
He is heard. Barkley is acting chairman of the group.

Mrs. Glenn Fish Honor Guest at Towel Shower

MRS. GLENN FISH, a recent bride, was complimented when her aunt, Mrs. George Landon Jr., entertained last evening at her home on South Main street. Assisting the hostess were her daughters, Mrs. Gale Butcher of Dayton, Mrs. Juma Brown Jr., and Mrs. Woodrow Frost. Towels brought by the guests were handed and presented to the honor guest and a recipe book also was compiled for her. Later the guests pieced together a cleverly made jigsaw puzzle which formed the picture of the honor guest and Mrs. Fish. Ribbons caught to a corsage directed her to her gift from the hostesses. Orchid and green, Mrs. Fish's wedding colors were used to carry out a decorative theme throughout the room and in the appointments for refreshments served at small tables. Mrs. Fish before her marriage last month was Miss Leota Clark.

will be with Mrs. Margaret Lewis of 565 Park street. Mrs. Russell Dunlap of Homer street was hostess for a meeting of Quest club Thursday evening. For the program house Mrs. Everett Grady reviewed "When the Sun Goes Down," by Elizabeth Metcalf Howard.

Mrs. D. J. Sussola entertained with a dinner Thursday evening at Detrick's Inn for members of the D-B club. Mrs. Ray Harper was a guest. Awards in bridge went to Mrs. James Brown Jr. and Mrs. William Schott. A gift of glassware from the club was presented to Mrs. Glen Fish, who before her recent marriage was Miss Leota Clark.

Mrs. Darral Vermillion entertained members of the Fortnightly Study club Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. James Ritzler on Market avenue. Devotions were conducted by the hostess and Mrs. Clementine Lawley who welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Frank Judy read a paper on "Post War Migration" and Mrs. John Morgan gave the biography of Evelyn Walsh McLennan. Refreshments were served by the hostess in keeping with St. Patrick's Day at a table centered with a bouquet of sweet peas and lighted with tapers.

The semi-annual guest book meeting of Ohio Delta Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Thelma Lautenlager on Powell street. Guests were Mrs. Mary Holloway, Mrs. Dorothy Turner and Mrs. Gloria Case. A contribution was voted to the Red Cross.

A short talk on "The Meaning of Beta Sigma Phi" was given by Mrs. Joan Austin, and Mrs. Jean Boncuffe gave "The History of Photography." A review of the February "Torch" magazine was given by Mrs. Edith Gibbon. The evening was spent socially.

Members of the H and H club entertained with a dinner party Wednesday evening at Hotel Harding honoring Mrs. Glen Fish who was Miss Leota Clark before her recent marriage. Covers were laid for eleven persons at a table decorated in purple and green, colors which Mrs. Fish chose for her wedding. A kitchen shower for the honored guest followed the dinner and she was also presented a gift from the club. The evening was spent socially.

The Gro-Mat Euchre club met Thursday evening with Mrs. Rosella Winters on Gill avenue. First prize in cards went to Mrs. Davis McCoy, second to Mrs. LaVon Stanley, and lone hand to Mrs. Alice Walker. Mrs. Lillian Bevis was consoled. Lunch was served.

Weddings

Miss Mary K. Millisor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Millisor of near Prospect, was united in marriage Sunday, March 3, with Lewis Caskey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Caskey of Celadonia. The double ring ceremony was read at 8:30 o'clock in the morning in the Trinity Lutheran church, south of Marion, by the pastor, Rev. N. C. Schellhase. Attending the couple were Miss Dorothy Lichtenberger of near Prospect and Thomas Millisor of Prospect, brother of the bride. A dinner for relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Following a brief wedding trip through the south, the couple will reside on a farm.

Mrs. Caskey is a graduate of Pleasant High school and has been employed at the Marion Engineering Dept. Mr. Caskey is a graduate of Claridon High school and is engaged in farming.

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Ruth Smart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Smart of Marion, to Paul I. Hanning, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hanning, also of Marion. The ceremony was read Feb. 28 at 8:30 p.m. by Rev. E. L. Oke, pastor of the Ashbury Methodist church, at the future home of the couple. A reception for the immediate family and friends was held following the ceremony, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Chicago. The decorations throughout the house were in keeping with the bride's color of powder blue, red and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pankin and family of Chicago, Ill., the former a brother of Mrs. Surge Baker of Delaware, have moved from their former home to a farm southwest of Ashley.

Mrs. Lillian Miller and son, Milton, of Port Clinton, are visiting friends in Marion this week. They are former residents of Marion.

SOYBEAN PLANTING URGED ON FARMERS
Same Acreage as in 1945 Urged by U. S.

With world food supplies at a lower ebb than in any wartime year, farmers are being urged by the American Soybean Association and by the U. S. department of agriculture to plant the same soybean acreage this spring as in 1945.

In Marion county soybeans are second only to corn in acreage planted. Last year there were an estimated 36,700 acres of soybeans in the county. Figures for this year's intended acreage have not yet been computed, but township AAA committeemen are now checking with farmers to determine their intended acreage for 1946. Committeemen are expected to finish their work in about a week.

County AAA Chairman Frank G. Montgomerie announced last week that the support price of $2.01 a bushel would be continued this year. This price applies to grade two soybeans, and most beans in Marion county fall into that class.

George M. Strayer, secretary of the American Soybean Association, in pointing to the need for high soybean acreage declared "It is certain that if we are to obtain a sufficient supply of protein to take care of livestock needs a year from now such supply must be grown by the soybean producers of the nation in 1946."

by the hostess in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Olive Williams of 832 Davis street.

A program hour was preceded by a 1 o'clock luncheon when Mrs. Paul Lill of the Bucyrus road entertained the Carpe Diem club Wednesday at her home. Mrs. Maurice Philbrick was appointed to represent the club on the Civic Planning group at a meeting set for Monday night. A contribution of $1 was made to the Red Cross campaign fund.

Mrs. C. C. Young, president, conducted the devotions and the members gave nursery rhymes for roll call. Mrs. Lill was in charge of the program hour which included a paper on "Luther Burbank" by Mrs. Gilbert Herr, accordion music by Miss Mary Barkley and an article on "Ash Wednesday" by Mrs. F. C. Shoots. A contest prepared by Mrs. Rudolph Risch was won by Mrs. Clarence Peterson and Mrs. A. J. Loudenslager. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Clarence Peterson and Mrs. P. G. Shoots.

Vows Exchanged at LaRue Church

VERONICA CUCHRA and Paul Joseph Karpik were married in St. Joseph Catholic church at LaRue, March 5 at 10:30 a.m. by Father William J. Meyer. Miss Rosemary Brickler of Columbus, cousin of the groom, was maid of honor and Miss Catherine Karpik, sister of the groom was bridesmaid.

The bride wore a trailing white gown of satin and a fitted diamond cut waist. The skirt fell in flowing folds, into a long train of shimmering satin and the long sleeves ended in accentuated points on the wrists. Her veil of white net was of fingertip length and the crown was adorned with a wealth of orange blossoms. She carried gaidias, mixed with white carnations and baby breath. Miss Brickler wore a floor-length short sleeved gown of ice blue and Miss Karpik's gown was blue net, on a blue satin bodice.

The best man was Frank Cuchra, brother of the bride. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cuchra of Ashland Wis. She attended Holy Family School, De Padua and Ashland High schools graduating with honors in May 1942. In the autumn of 1942 she accepted a position in Washington, D. C. and has worked for the war department since that time.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Karpik of Richwood, Route 3. He is a graduate of Richwood High school and attended Ohio State university until he enlisted in the Navy. He was recently honorably discharged after 41 months as a pharmacist's mate. He saw action in the Pacific for a year and a half and just recently returned from China.

Mr. and Mrs. Karpik will make their future home near Columbus.

Mackenzie Finds How Swiss Beat German War Talk

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP World Traveler
BERN, SWITZERLAND, March 9—One of the mysteries of the late war was Switzerland's ability to maintain her neutrality, a thing as rare as the unicorn in the forest of the East. It was the result of many sagacity and under constant pressure from Hitler to cast her lot with the Axis.

We've found the answer here in Bern, and it's a strange story. The fall of France left Switzerland absolutely alone in the face of the Nazi-Fascist combination. The world policy of the Swiss had been based on the balance of power in Europe. They had figured that if one country attacked them, then another would come to their rescue, but with France's collapse the Axis war machine was rolling free.

The Swiss were against Hitler and Fascism which ran contrary to their democracy and religion. Some eight times Germany tried to get Switzerland to join Nazi movements of various sorts. Hitler's idea being thus to drive a wedge in Swiss neutrality. Each time this country refused, but the danger continued to grow.

Even Tough for Hitler
So in 1940 Switzerland decided that alone she could fight to the end to defend herself. She had as her main defense the Alps, and believe me these mighty and precipitous mountains are close to invulnerable in themselves, quite apart from strategic man-made redoubts, and fortifications driven a mile deep into their stone sides.

We have seen some of these defenses, and there is no doubt that they presented an obstacle which even the mighty Hitlerian army wouldn't have liked to tackle. The Swiss also had industries capable of producing light war material and their standing army was 600,000, officered by soldiers of long training. Furthermore all Swiss men are given an intensive basic military training. So reserves were available.

However, the country was threatened by more than military force, for there was constant German propaganda to try to destroy national unity as well as false rumors about Swiss problems. To meet this danger General Henri Deterode, the commander in chief, decided in 1940 to create a new service to build moral among the troops.

This was done through permanent orientation towards the economic and political problems of the country and he attacked the work in an unusual way. The orientation was carried out by personal contact between orientation officers and men and not by printed propaganda. The Swiss principle of absolute honesty was applied, that the idea of always telling the truth.

Build Up Confidence
In this was tremendous sense of confidence was created between men and officers. Naturally a great part of the orientation program was devoted to clearing up the Nazi lies, and this was successfully met by the program of telling the exact truth.

This task was complemented by application of the constructive policy of giving to each man the reason why Switzerland should be ready to fight in self-defense at any minute. It was made clear to each soldier that he was engaged not only in a war of arms but of ideas—between the ma-

GALLUP, N. M.—A Marine Corps major shot a coyote near here recently and thereby learned a bit of Navajo Indian religion.

The major searched all over town, with no success, to find an Indian to skin the animal so he could keep the hide as a trophy. He finally learned that the Navajo holds the coyote in such extreme contempt that he will have nothing to do with the animal, dead or alive.

The major finally got one of the town butchers to do the job.

"The power and glory of God resting on Christ prompted the apostles to ask him to teach them how to pray," he declared. "In the model prayer, the person to whom we address prayer is God as our father, and a feature of our approaching God is our confidence for God. Having gained the presence of God we begin our petitions first for his kingdom and his will, then ask for our daily sustenance and our soul provisions."

Golden Gloves Fighters Primed for 22-Bout Opening Card Monday Night

95 Signed on Entry List; Tournament Officials Set

81 Entered for AAU Bouts, 14 in Non-Title Class as Final Plans Are Made.

By JIM DABY

With the Golden Gloves AAU district tournament set to open Monday at 8 p. m., 81 fighters have returned their official AAU entry blanks to the sponsoring Y's Men's Service club, it was announced today as officials for the annual event were designated. Fourteen paperweight or novice division fighters will also fight non-title bouts.

Bouts will begin promptly at 8 and 22 fights are scheduled for the first elimination session. The committee asks that all fighters report at the armory by 6 p. m. for a physical examination and weighing in, after which the fighters will be matched. The committee stresses that all entrants are expected to bring their own equipment—shoes, trunks, towels and robes.

Semi-finals Wednesday. Semi-finals will be fought Wednesday and the final title bout Friday. All fights are for three two-minute rounds with one-minute rest periods. Eight ounce gloves are used in weights up through welter and a 10 ounce glove in weights from middle to heavy.

Winners in their weights in this district tournament will go to the state AAU invitation tournament at Columbus March 26 and 27. State tournament winners will go to the national AAU tournament at Boston.

In order to spread the burden of refereeing and judging the bouts this year, the following have been appointed to alternate as judges and referees: Dr. A. J. Wagner, Jim Williams, Ike Jones, and Paul Lester. Attending physicians will be Dr. E. H. Morgan, R. L. Morgan, J. A. McNamara and A. E. Morrison; announcers: Marion E. Hinckley and Russell M. Wilhelm.

Reserve tickets are being sold at Market and Lewis at $1.20 and general admission tickets at 85 cents are sold by all members of the Y's Men's club.

CLARIDON, MAGNETIC AND GALION SET FOR FINALS

Tonight the district tournaments enter the final rounds with only the elite left from the scores of original entries.

At Delaware Columbus North battles Newark, and at Kenton Galion and Wapakoneta fight it out. In class B competition at Westerville, underdog Claridon carries Marion county's hopes into battle with Magnetic Springs and Grove City.

Worthington in dual championship play.

At Columbus North wins its battle at 9 p. m. tonight it will be largely by courtesy of Harding's Presidents. The toughest fight North had in the tournament was its 54 to 50 win over Harding when the locals faltered in the last moments of the opening game. Bexley and Columbus Central will tangle for runnerup at 7:30.

Claridon, in the finals despite off-stride play throughout the tournament, is hoping for a 16-cylinder evening as they tackle Magnetic Springs at 7:30 tonight. They'll need it in spite of a 22 for 20 mark. The lower bracket dual pits the Franklin county winner, Worthington, against the runner-up, Grove City, for a final showdown.

Already assured of their regional berths were Northridge, Middlepoint and Sandusky St. Mary in Class "B" and Montpelier in Class "A." The other contenders to complete fields of 16 in each class will be decided tonight.

Northridge had its second straight close call before winning its district tournament at Dayton. The Polar Bears, held to their lowest offensive count of the season, barely squeezed past Easton 31 to 30. On their last time out they gained only a 34 to 32 margin over Franklin.

Six Teams Left

Sandusky St. Mary, which won its district meet at Fremont with a 39 to 30 decision over Cynnet, will be shooting next week for its second straight trip to the state finals.

Middlepoint's 31 to 20 decision over New Knoxville trimmed the list of unbeaten teams in the tournament to six. They are Middlepoint and Hamilton Catholic in

Middlepoint's 31 to 20 decision over New Knoxville trimmed the list of unbeaten teams in the tournament to six. They are Middlepoint and Hamilton Catholic in Class "A" and Northridge, Wayneburg, Attica and Strasburg in class "B."

Strasburg built its winning streak to 28 last night by wallowing Zanesville St. Thomas, 61 to 59, and Attica reached 24 by its 20 to 15 conquest of Bettsville.

The night was not without its upsets in class "A," the most notable of which was the 40 to 35 beating Toledo Libbey gave Toledo McComber. Macomber was the Toledo city champion and was heavily favored in its district after Rosford was knocked off in a first round encounter.

Libbey will meet Toledo Woodward in the finals.

The dope bucket also was kicked around a bit as Kent Roosevelt, laced Akron South, 48 to 42, to gain the right to meet Akron St. Vincent in one of two final games at Kent.

Almost an Upset

There almost was a major upset at Delaware, too, but Newark's Wildcats finally came through with a 44 to 42 decision over Columbus Bexley, a team they had licked easily earlier in the season. Newark was playing under a handicap, however, as star Bill Flett had to sit out the encounter because of a sprained ankle.

The Wildcats will meet Columbus North tonight. North also produced a bit of a surprise by whipping Columbus Central, the Capital City champions, 48 to 31.

Galion Wins Way to Kenton Finals

Special to The Star

KENTON, March 9.—Galion edged Findlay 31 to 27 while Wapakoneta stopped Lima South 43 to 31 last night at Kenton in the class A district semi-finals. The two will meet tonight at 8 for the championship.

Galion came from behind twice in this nip and tuck battle before Neff and Bosser scored up the game in the last few moments. Findlay led at the end of the first quarter and had it tied up at 23 all as the final round began.

Wapakoneta in typical style, rolled up a thumping margin in the first half then coasted to victory. Lima South outplayed the Western Buckeye league champs all through the last two frames but not enough.

Score by quarters:

Wapakoneta 14 14 7 8-43

Lima South 5 6 9 11-31

Galion 31 Findlay 27

Film Picture in Redwoods

Ohio To Show "The Enchanted Forest": Now Playing Through Thursday.

"The Enchanted Forest" starring Brenda Joyce, Edmund Lowe, Billy Severn and Harry Davenport is now playing through Thursday at the Ohio theater.

This technicolor fantasy which has 14 trained animals and birds which act along with the featured players has the beautiful California redwoods forest as the background. Harry Davenport plays the role of old John, a hermit of the woods in which the story is set.

John has always known the peaceful feeling of the forest. When he finds a lost child in the woods, played by Billy Severn, he teaches this to the boy and brings him up among the wild creatures. Several people who have been hurt by life are drawn to the woods and eventually find peace within themselves. Among the animals which appear in the picture are the dog, goat, mountain lion, squirrel and many others.

A March of Time film, "Life With Baby," will be shown with "The Enchanted Forest." In this film, March of Time takes you to the famous Yale Clinic which is directed by one of America's foremost child psychologists, Dr. Arnold Gesell. It tells about the development of babies and how their muscles and minds grow stage by stage.

"Cinderella Jones" starring Robert Aida and Joan Leslie, who will be shown for seven days starting Friday.

Using the theme of the well-known fable of nursery days which concerned Cinderella and her glass slipper, this picture traces the adventures of Judy Jones, played by Joan Leslie, who discovers that she has inherited ten million dollars. She has been singing with Tommy Cole's jump orchestra, but gives this up when she finds that according to the provisions of the inheritance, she must marry a man with a high intelligence. This starts her on her merry way in search of a husband who will meet this qualification.

The second Thursday in order to close the business before the opening of the new year in May.

Mrs. F. H. LeMasters was named chairman, and Mrs. J. R. McCain, Mrs. William Drake and Mrs. Kenneth Johnson members of the committee to call on new members. A gift of money was made to a missionary leaving for the foreign field.

Mrs. Dale Gorman was in charge of a program which opened with a song by the group and devotions by Mrs. Lewis Ashworth on the theme, "It Pays to Believe in People."

Hostesses for the meeting were members of the Ruth Mather circle.

Sycamore Man Freed

UPPER SANDUSKY—William Scott of Sycamore, charged with stealing a truck from the Sycamore Mill and Supply Co., has been released under $1,000 bond.

2 Films Open Bill at Marion

Top Stars in Casts of Pictures To Show Here Sunday and Monday.

"Our Vines Have Tender Grapes" starring Edward G. Robinson, Margaret O'Brien and Jackie "Butch" Jenkins, and "Captain Eddie" with Fred Murray and Lynn Bari will be shown Sunday and Monday at the Marion theater.

The former tells of a little seven-year-old farm girl who battles alone against the self-centered attitude of the men and women of the little town which is leading to their destruction.

The latter is the life story of Eddie Rickenbacker from the day when he first had the idea that he wanted to fly through the perilous days which he and his companions spent on a raft on the ocean.

"Smooth as Silk" starring Kent Taylor and Virginia Grey, and "Junior Miss" with Peggy Ann Garner will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday.

The former is the story of an ace New York attorney who wins every case he handles until his actress fiancée throws him over for another man. The latter is concerned with a junior model whose vivid imagination builds up a non-existing triangle involving her mother and father, both unsuspecting, and the innocent daughter of her father's boss.

"The Face of Marble" starring John Carradine, Claudia Drake and Willis Best, and "Lawless Empire" with Charles Starrett as the Durango Kid will be shown Thursday through Saturday.

In the former which is a weird mystery film, a professor is conducting experiments in restoring life in "Lawless Empire," the kid smashes the toughest and toughest outlaw band in the west which is attempting to put the people off of their land.

A Community Sing, "Canine Casanova," "This is America," and the latest Paramount News will be shown with the feature picture.

"Because of Him," starring Deanna Durbin, Charles Laughton and Franchot Tone, will be shown Wednesday through Saturday.

The story in this picture tells of a waitress, Kim Walker, played by Deanna Durbin, who dreams of becoming an actress. Through means of her own, she secures the signature of her most ardent fan on a sheet of paper, on which she had written a letter recommending her dramatic talent. She takes the letter to his manager, and things begin to happen in her acting career when she is signed for a feature role.

"Cadet Cagers," "Plicker Flashback," and "Hot and Hottic" with Tommy Tucker are short features to be shown.

HITS CHURCHILL PLAN

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—The proposal of Great Britain's former prime minister, Winston Churchill, for an English-speaking bloc against Russia would ruin the United Nations' peace program, says Senator James W. Huffman (D-Ohio). The senator asserted on a visit here that "Great Britain is not going to become the forty-ninth star in our flag."

NEWS FROM OUR BOYS

Mrs. Richard Moore has left Camp Kilmer, N. J., P.O.E., for overseas duty with the Army Air Forces. He enlisted while a senior at Harding High, graduated with the class of '34, and entered the service in February, 1943. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Moore of 213 South High street.

WANTS CURE ON UNIONS

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—

Laws are needed to make labor unions legally responsible for contractual obligations because increased strikes are "dangerously affecting the welfare of the people," the Columbus Chamber of Commerce contends. A resolution passed by the chamber yesterday also cited a need for making anti-trust, anti-racketeering and campaign contribution laws apply to unions as well as corporations.

FEW ISSUES ADVANCE IN SLUGGISH TRADE

NEW YORK, March 9.—Individual stocks made further headway in another exceptionally "thin" market today but resistance to recovery still was evident and dealings among the slowest since last September.

The proceedings turned sluggish after a fairly active opening and volume dwindled to around 500,000 shares for the two hours.

Adding some issues such as American Telephone, and reviving labor hopes a lifeline, was the settlement of the Western Electric strike.

Occasional advances included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, Bell Aircraft, Grumman, North American, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Pfizer, American Smelting and Johns-Manville.

UPPER SANDUSKY TRIAL IN RECESS

May End Monday After Arguments by Attorneys.

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, March 9.—Evidence in the trial of Joseph T. Currier of Columbus will be argued by both defense and state attorneys before the jury Monday when the Wyandot county court reconvenes.

The case was recessed Friday afternoon and will open again at 9:30 a. m. Monday. Judge Clarence U. Ahl, before whom the trial is being conducted, returned to Bucyrus today on official business.

All witnesses scheduled to testify have appeared in court and attorneys now are ready to make their arguments to the jury. The trial may end some time Monday, court officials said.

During Friday's recess a motion for directed verdict was entered by defense attorneys, but the motion was overruled by Judge Ahl.

Currier is being tried on an indictment charging he gave false information to Wyandot county residents when he attempted to buy stock from them in the Fidelity Building Loan and Savings Co. of Columbus. He is charged with representing the stock at less than its true value.

LOVE'S FAIR HORIZON

By ADELE GARRISON

OLGA'S eyes were troubled as she stared at a Spartan mother. "They met mine," she said. She stopped and gave me a look that had appeal in it.

"That is what Olga is planning," she said. She stopped, as if she were measuring her words.

"In a way, it is a most natural gesture," she said. "She loves Georges terribly, and she hesitated again. 'I am afraid in the way she is ashamed of his actions, and for that very reason is determined to show her contempt for him by announcing her betrothal to him.'

"Yes, I can see that," I said as she paused, evidently in expectation of an answer from me.

"But," she went on, "this flaunting of her ring is something else again, as I have heard some of you say over here."

"You see, she said slowly, 'although I idolize Olga, yet I am not so good."

"Not so good," she said. "I am afraid I do not understand, myself, who is going through my daughter's mind," she said sadly, "but I am afraid that when she makes the announcement of her engagement—or if Philip makes it for her—she will stress the point that the ring Georges has given her is the one the kings of France always give their brides."

"I am afraid I do not understand, myself, who is going through my daughter's mind," she said sadly, "but I am afraid that when she makes the announcement of her engagement—or if Philip makes it for her—she will stress the point that the ring Georges has given her is the one the kings of France always give their brides."

Eye Trouble

BY allergic disorders, we mean a group of conditions which arise because persons react to some food which they eat, to some drugs which they may take, or to pollen or dusts which are breathed in or come in contact with the tissues of the body.

The lining membrane over the eyeball, the lids and the cornea or front part of the eyeball may be affected by the kind of pollen which produces hay fever, such as rag-weed pollen. An inflammation along the edge of the eyelid known as blepharitis marginalis, according to this physician, is frequently caused by eating eggs, chocolate, milk or peanuts.

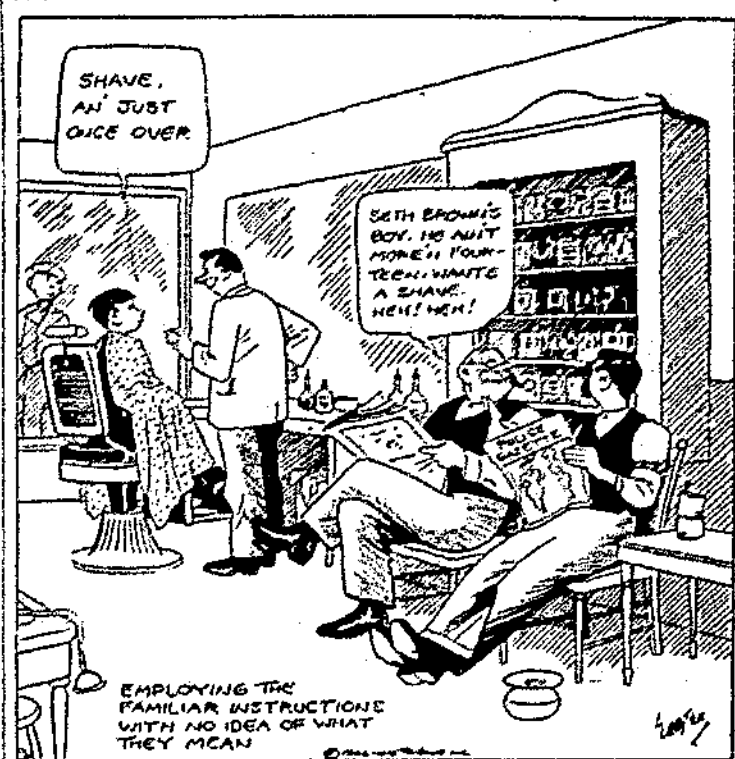

In the spring and summer of the year a condition known as vernal conjunctivitis, which is an inflammation of the lining of the eyeball and eyelids, may develop in persons between five and fifteen years of age. The condition clears up in the fall and winter. This disease is probably caused by pollen from trees and early grasses.

In vernal conjunctivitis, little swellings occur under the eyelids. There is itching pain on exposure of the eyes to light, and the kind of white blood cells known as eosinophils are found in the mucus secretions from the eyes.

After the disorder continues for several seasons, the swellings on the underside of the lids often become permanent and cause an irritation of the cornea. The disorder may be so severe that it is necessary for the physician to remove the lining membrane from the inside of the eyelids.

When eye inflammation occurs, it is necessary that a careful study be made to determine if the disorder is caused by some allergic condition. In these allergic disorders, the treatment is far different from that required in eye infections, in that the substance causing the allergy should be found and contact with it prevented, if possible.

Modern Home Conveniences Add Three Hours of Leisure Daily

YOUR HOME TODAY and TOMORROW

by W. Wadsworth Wood

Kitchen and Laundry Work Made Easy.

It has been estimated by authorities that the modern kitchen and laundry add exactly three hours of leisure to the housewife's day. When this is analyzed the truth of it becomes obvious. The comparatively small operation of preparing a breakfast alone, in a modern kitchen with electric toaster, mixer, and coffee urn, and everything within hand's reach, is a good 15 minutes and utensils have a definite storage space. Walls are of plastic or other composition sheets that are wiped clean without effort. Floors are resilient, easy to clean, and stain proof. There is good light, good ventilation, and a telephone extension that obviates long trips to the main instrument. In short the modern kitchen provides great convenience, comfortable surroundings, and ease of operation. All of this is available to the small home today with proper planning.

Wash day has ceased to be a nightmare to the modern housewife with a modern laundry or modern laundry equipment in her kitchen. As a matter of fact there is no longer any particular day set aside for the drudgery of the family wash, because it is done at odd moments as it may accumulate.

Drudgery? No Such Word
When you have a washing machine that soaks, scrubs, rinses and dries, an ironing board that drops out of the wall ready for use, an electric iron that dampens and maintains a constant heat, there is not much drudgery involved for the average competent housewife. When mechanical equipment takes the place of manual labor to a great degree, things slimmer down to good planning and management.

There is nothing particularly new about dish washers and clothes washers, electric irons and mixers, or vacuum cleaners, but there is much news in the manner in which they have been developed. There are now combination clothes and dish washers, perfected irons and mixers, and better vacuum cleaners. There is mechanical ventilation, perfect sensible lighting, glass-doored stoves and ranges, and walls and floors that were unknown a generation ago. There is now available every conceivable aid for making kitchen and laundry operation a real pleasure instead of a task. Look into them, and even

WHY WASTE COAL?

One of a series of articles intended to help solve heating problems and conserve fuel.

The periodic brushing of the gas passages of the boiler or furnace of a hand-fired or stoker-fired system is a three-minute chore which pays big dividends. If you are not in the habit of doing this, we would suggest that you obtain a flexible-handled wire brush from your hardware dealer or heating contractor, and brush these passages. A considerable saving of fuel can be effected by this simple means, because accumulation of soot and ash in the gas passages, which are the heat-absorbing surfaces of the heating device, acts as insulation, and causes heat to be lost unnecessarily.

On warm-air furnaces, hot-water or steam boilers, there is a small door usually marked "Clean-out," opposite the smoke-pipe outlet. The brush should be inserted through this door for the purpose of cleaning out the accumulation in the gas passages. The soot and ash should be removed and put on the fire. It will not hurt the fire. Indeed, the soot, being unburned carbon, will be additional fuel. The check-draft should be closed while this operation is being performed.

Since this money-saving process is so easy, and does not cause any dust to be discharged into the basement, we recommend that it be done at least once a month during the heating season.

though you may not be able to afford them at the moment, at least provide for them in your plans for the future.

Heated Rugs One Of New Comforts Ahead

NEW YORK—Electrically heated rugs designed for the rooms of invalids and babies are among the many new comforts and conveniences which will be found in the home of the near future, according to Business Week.

Others, the publication states, are lamp shades now going into production, equipped with a levelizer to keep them neatly horizontal at all times, a cordless electric iron which makes electrical contact with a thermos-tactically controlled bed plate when rested on the plate between pieces of work, and an electric alarm clock which rings until the over-sleeper gets out of bed, permitting the springs to rise and operate the cut-off switch.

FORECAST ON STOKERS

By 1946 stoker manufacturers predict their production and sales will be on the highest level in the history of the industry. Material bottlenecks should be eliminated by that time, and residential stokers as well as commercial and industrial models produced at a fast rate, stoker company officials say.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

By The Associated Press

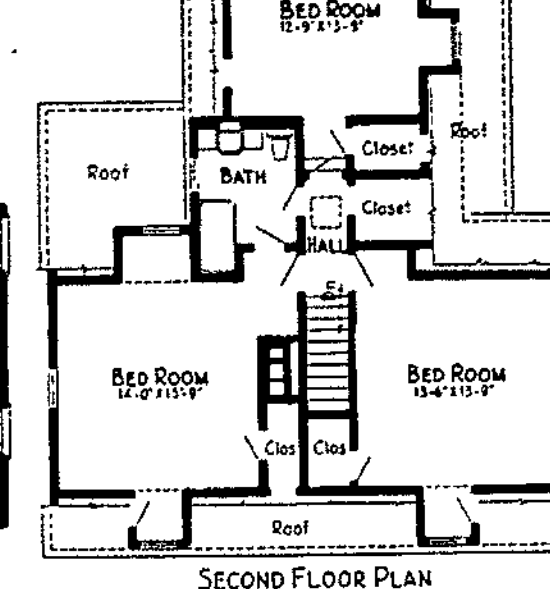

This six-room house was designed by Maurice Thornton of 5892 Compton drive, Indianapolis, Ind. In addition to rooms shown in these plans, a large space with fireplace is provided in the basement for a recreation room. Because of families that prefer traditional styles, this house was selected by the American Builder, 105 West Adams street, Chicago.

Cabinet Space One of Top Features In Postwar Kitchens

Cabinet space is one of the features that will be particularly emphasized in the postwar kitchen, and how the housewife will glory in it—provided she makes the most of her cabinet space.

The space below the sink comes into its own at last as a storage place for many necessities, with a door to conceal it from view.

Shelves will be adjusted to fit its contents; small shelves for low objects; tall ones for stacked-up dishes—a real solution to waste space and inefficiency in your storage set-up.

Some of the shelves may be sliding trays to let you reach the items stored at the back of the cupboard easily. Think about adding a pullout shelf directly from the wall. It will add storage space at meal time, and, if at the right height, will act as a table surface for your afternoon work.

If your window does not extend to the ceiling, the space above it is ideally suited for the storage of seldom-used pieces. It adds a decorative note to the kitchen, too. Special storage space in the way of a high closet or cabinet will be provided for brooms, mops and other long-handled gadgets.

Consult your builder about these things. He will be able to advise you on what will be practical.

COAL BURNING PROCESS

Before coal can burn, it is converted into gas, and before gas can burn it is mixed with a proper amount of air. This process is called "carburetion," and has been scientifically perfected on automatic coal stokers for balanced, efficient firing, point out heating engineers.

WALLPAPER BORDER
Q: There is a border along the upper part of my wallpaper, made of a heavily encrusted type of paper. I should like to remove it, as it does not harmonize with my new drapes. Washing and scraping are very tedious. Is there some easier way to take it off?

A: Try rubbing with coarse sandpaper, which you can wrap around a block of wood for easy handling. Then soak with warm water, containing a little ammonia. It should then be soft enough to come off with a little more scraping.

HOLE IN LINOLEUM
Q: Is there any way to fill a small hole in floor linoleum?

A: Get a small piece of linoleum

Some Advice On

Painting Radiators

Painting a radiator? Be sure that the last coat of paint that you apply is the non-metallic kind, says the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau, in calling attention to the fact that a radiator finished with metallic paint will emit less heat than a similar one finished with non-metallic paint. It's only the last coat of paint, however, that makes any difference. The last coat may be metallic so long as the final coat is non-metallic.

TO IMPROVE DISPLAYS

Many master plumbers and heating contractors are planning to modernize their stores and showrooms to provide better display of equipment, says the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau. The new showrooms will be designed to make merchandise more accessible to customers of the right color. Pulverize the piece to a rather fine powder, mix it with a small quantity of spar varnish to make a paste. Smooth the edges of the hole with fine steel wool, and then force the paste into the hole and allow it to dry. Then rub on a dab of paste wax, let dry, and polish.

DYE your CONCRETE FLOORS

and you'll NEVER have to paint them!

The dye goes right down into the concrete so you have a color-fast job. Won't rub or color-fade. Gives you beautiful floors, sanitary, and less-proof. Moisture or basement condensation doesn't harm it. Remember—it's a Dye, not a paint. Rich colors.

Housing Wins 357-24
THE FORM in which the administration housing bill won house approval Thursday was so changed from the original proposal that Housing Expediter Wyatt says the official national goal of 2,700,000 new houses is impossible.

However, a few things have happened since Expediter Wyatt first turned his dynamic attention to housing. There has been considerable discussion. The discussion has brought out varying points of view. The varying points have clashed, and the clashes have brought out a few sparks of truth.

The result is that many persons who wanted to believe Mr. Wyatt could wave a wand and produce 2,700,000 houses out of red tape now realize that housing is not merely a problem of doing certain things in the future but undoing
certain things of the past.

The government, of itself, cannot build a chicken coop. Houses must be built by private enterprise, with materials made available by private enterprise. If private enterprise had a free rein, there would be no need for a Mr.
Wyatt to expedite houses. The demand for houses would be all the incentive necessary.

In other words, housing has not been affected by a watered-down housing bill. All that was affected are the plans of Washington to neutralize damage done by previous government policies that hinder housing more than they help it. Everybody is for more and better housing. But not everybody these days is for the worn-out credo that the federal government, which claims to have all the answers, never needs to acknowledge its mistakes. Its pricing regulations on building materials are a very grave mistake.

Missing Detail
LAST-MINUTE settlement of issues threatening to cripple telephone service removes one of three major strike possibilities. Paralysis of railroad service and a stoppage of coal mining
are the other two.

The telephone settlement is marked by a missing detail that has been vital in all other important labor controversies—the inflationary effect of the higher rates obtained by labor's strategy.

Telephone rates, unlike the price of steel per ton, the price of automobiles, coal and railroad service, are not subject to federal edict. They lie between the component parts of the communications monopoly and the utility commissions of the states. There is no Chester Bowles with authority to say yes or no, no possibility of a direct horse trade, no quid pro quo.

Higher operating costs, if that is what a general increase in wage rates for telephone workers is going to mean, must be recovered by protracted negotiations in the separate states.
The missing detail of the telephone strike is the contribution to inflation that came out of it.

Diplomatic Marksmanship
AS THE vote-counting continues in Argentina it is apparent that only a miracle can keep Juan Peron from controlling the government, either as its president, boss of the majority party, or both.

This will be embarrassing to the United States. It will pose a tough proposition in diplomacy: what follows an unsuccessful attack
on a hostile individual?

In the sharing of responsibility for the government's conduct of foreign affairs, all informed Americans know why Peron of Argentina has become a symbol of force in Latin American politics that must be resisted. The United States, somewhat ineptly, staked its prestige on its ability not only to resist Peron
but to eliminate him. In his election campaign,
it took sides against him.

Our diplomats, after many mistakes and re-loadings, have performed the modern counterpart of the traditional plot to destroy a king.
... He who shoots at a king must not miss. It remains to be seen what happens when a dictator is untouched by a badly aimed "bullet."
Peron is one. Franco in Spain may be another.

Some Cylinders Missing
RUSSIA obviously intends to promote its special brand of communism wherever it can sow the seeds of dissension. But capitalism, meanwhile, which can be made to yield to communism only where the mass of the people have everything to gain and nothing to lose, is being tied in knots by industrial rebellion and labor-management deadlocks.

Instead of being promoted, it is being held back. It is going into a race for its existence with cylinders missing. It becomes of increasing interest why the cylinders are missing; who is most interested in having them that way; what wires were pulled loose with what purpose in mind; who and what stands to gain most if the industrial reconstruction of the United States is crippled.

Trip of Battleship Missouri

By WALTER LIPPMANN

More Than Conventions of Diplomacy in Voyage.

A LONG with the announcement that the body of the late Turkish ambassador is to be taken home on board the battleship Missouri, the state department has made a disclaimer that this decision has any political meaning.

The conventions of diplomacy may require this. But in fact, as everyone knows, the choice of this ship and the timing of its voyage to coincide with the mounting crisis in the Middle East constitutes a political demonstration.

That is our intention, and therefore, it is quite important that we should place our own interpretation upon it. Otherwise we may find that Moscow, London and Istanbul have put their conflicting interpretations upon it. If the Missouri is to accomplish her mission, which is to promote peace, we must make it clear to all concerned why, as the Middle Eastern crisis mounts, we have thought it advisable to exhibit at the center of it this token of American power. This would be necessary in any event. It is particularly necessary in the aftermath of Mr. Churchill's speech.

Our action is meant, of course, to show that the United States has a real, not merely a theoretical and verbal, interest in the Mediterranean and the Middle East. That much will be understood in every foreign office. When a great power sends a battleship to a disputed area, in the language of diplomacy that means it intends to participate in the settlement.

Chance of Error
Our intentions could easily be misinterpreted, especially at this moment, as committing this country to the role of second and supporter in an anti-Soviet coalition. That surely is not what we intend to accomplish. Our real reason, which is the best of all reasons, should be made known unmistakably. That the United States has great interests of its own in the Mediterranean, and that the settlement is not to be determined by Great Britain and the Soviet Union alone. The whole value of the demonstration would be destroyed if Moscow, London and Istanbul were allowed to think that Mr. Churchill has persuaded us to come in order to reinforce Mr. Bevin. This is not a lend-lease operation. It is an insistence that we wish to be recognized as an independent power in the Mediterranean and not to be committed, entangled, and discounted as an auxiliary power.

Independent American participation is indispensable if the conflict in the Mediterranean is not to become first deadlocked, and then dangerously explosive. The British-Russian conflict is deteriorating toward violence. For both in Moscow and in London the men who have responsibility seem to have run out of ideas, and of the energy to promote them, which offer any hope or promise of a constructive settlement. Moscow is full of dynamism, no doubt, but it is primitive, acquiescent, and morbidly self-centered. The Soviet leaders who profess to be the missionaries of a new civilization, are at the present time behaving as if no one in Russia had had a really new idea since Peter the Great.

And London, after all the fine rhetoric of the Labor party leaders, has a foreign policy which is not easily distinguishable from

Case and His Labor Bill

By Frank I. Weller

By FRANK I. WELLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON—It's beyond a lot of people who know him, how Rep. Francis Case ever came to write his proposed "Labor Disputes Act, 1936."

He's never encountered a strike or a lockout. His two newspapers are "open shop." All the union labor in South Dakota, his home state, would rattle in a gopher hole. He says a senator from an eastern industrial center asked him to keep out of this business ... that he didn't know a damn thing about it.

Case, a Republican, is 49, ups 5-foot-3, weighs 165 pounds. In addition to being a congressman since 1936, he ranches 900 acres in the Black Hills and runs two weekly newspapers, the Custer Chronicle and the Hot Springs Star.

A Non-Cussing Ex-Sergeant
"Casey," as they call him, is an ex-Marine who doesn't smoke, cuss, play cards, booze around, or anything. He was a drill sergeant in the old war. His father was a Methodist minister but Case says he doesn't go to church "half enough."

Case says he strictly is a friend of labor and that his bill proves it. He says, "I insist that it is equally important to protect the rights of labor and industry and the general public in the processes of collective bargaining."

900 Ships Return
4,884,000 to States

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK—Ships are bringing back service men and women from overseas at three times the rate after World War I. They returned 4,884,024 from May 1945 through January, 1946. Ships magazine reports, compared with 1,481,673 from November, 1918, through June, 1919. More than 900 vessels were used in the movement. The high point came last November, with over a million brought back.

Swiss Students
Duel in Secret
By The Associated Press
BERN, Switzerland—The ancient sport of dueling still flourishes in Switzerland among university students although it is forbidden by law.

The matches, whether for fencing practice or to settle a grudge, take place secretly, generally in a remote country inn. Seconds for the contestants, an umpire and a doctor always are present. Should the duelers, members of 11 student clubs which sponsor the sport, be caught, they face imprisonment, or a fine and confiscation of weapons.

"Dueling is not as dangerous as one might think," an alumnus of a dueling fraternity said. "A wounded fencer seldom has to be taken to the hospital."

To prevent wounded duelers protect their eyes, throat, arms and chests. Sabers and rapiers are disinfected regularly.

Giving the reason for continuation of the old sport a veteran dueler said "it is not important to win such a match. Most important is to behave, as a man should behave in the face of danger."

Britain's Troubles

By Raymond Moley

WINSTON CHURCHILL, in office or out, has more influence in the United States than any other foreigner. The application of the term "foreigner" to this man seems, at first blush, an affront. He is loved for his courage, respected for his integrity and enormously respected for his incomparable intellectual talents.

In his Westminster College speech, he was the Churchill we have known for years—frank, resourceful, friendly and profoundly a British patriot. He hits a popular note in this country at the moment, because he voices, perhaps too broadly, a growing impatience among us with the post-war policies of Soviet Russia.

Wholly aside from the rights and wrongs of the many differences of opinion between Russia and Britain, the Churchill appeal reminds us, once more, of the inevitability of American sympathy and help for Britain in all her critical moments. Those who believe that this country will ever fall to back up Britain if she is in danger need only look back to the early years of the last two wars. In both instances, the President of the United States proclaimed neutrality. But the American people refused to be neutral and ultimately gave all they had to the defeat of Britain's enemies. Everyone old enough to have passed through these two periods must feel the same fatalism. Ultimately, we will cast aside detachment and help Britain.

But we will also remember that British policy and diplomacy in the events prior to both wars left much to be desired. Most Americans wish that, in both cases, we had taken a more active part in the preliminaries. They wish we had told Britain well before those wars what we would support and what we would not support. They wish we had lent a hand in the making of world policies before the wars, because they believe that, if we had given some realistic intellectual guidance, we might have saved ourselves the giving of so much blood and treasure later on.

Something like the same situation faces us now, and Mr. Churchill with all his persuasive eloquence suggests that we should, once more, accept British initiative in world policy. There was little or nothing in his speech which suggested that most of Britain's troubles have little to do directly with Soviet relations. They have to do with unrest in the British, the Dutch and the French empires themselves.

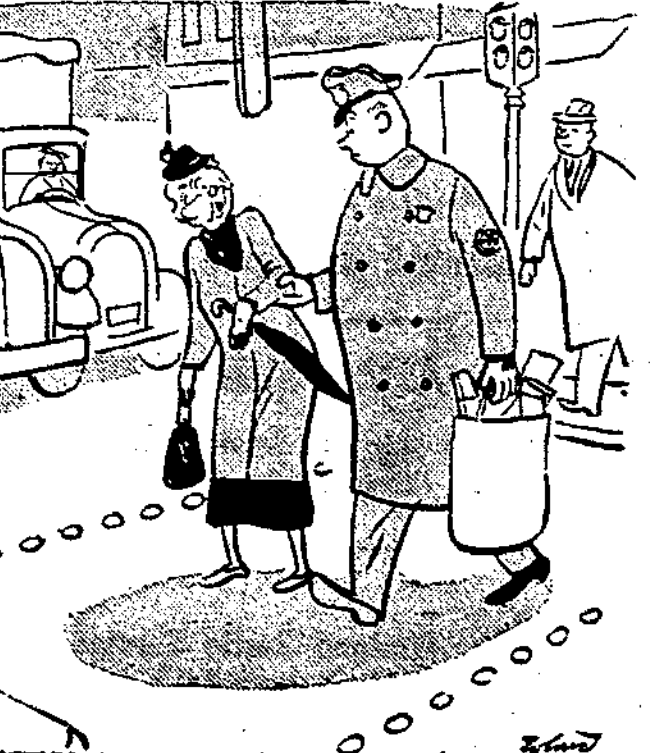

In Egypt, Malaysia, India, Indonesia, Syria and Lebanon the trouble is with the new demands of old subject peoples. The war sharpened the unrest of great areas which seek some new form of government more likely to lead to the democracy and self-determination of which Mr. Churchill speaks so feelingly. So far the Government of Great Britain has failed to take sufficient account of this unrest. It has too often used old and fruitless means of suppression by force. In its efforts to maintain the old status, Britain has never welcomed our intervention nor has it come to the LNO with a frank desire to introduce more international authority over those countries that are half free and half subject.

Times Change
Britain ought to realize that much of the authority exercised in past generations is outdated now that her position is weakened not only by internal impoverishment, but by an unrealistic determination to hold the line against obviously changed conditions.

No one wants to see the breakup of the British Empire. It should stand for all time as a symbol of the influence of free men and free institutions. But there are spots in the world where readjustments must take place. Larger measures of recognition must be given to awakening sentiments of independence. Mr. Churchill did not point out that a revived China wants not only no Russian grabs, but also a relaxation of British-made restrictions on its independence. What Britain needs and what Mr. Churchill failed to endorse is a British-made inventory of British holdings and a broad effort to supplant the rule of empire with the rule of law. And in that reconsideration, the United States might well be invited to join.

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Letter to a Forgetful Official

THE Russian request for a loan had been in Washington, due to carelessness of state department official, for many weeks, and was found only when inquiry was made concerning it.—News item.

To the Responsible Official—
Dear Sir:

Well, it is a pretty serious matter and you had better get a lawyer and start building your defense if you hold any hope of keeping your job. There are some things that can be forgiven in Washington, but losing a request for a loan is not one of them. In fact, a man who ever slows up such a request is not the type that one expects any future in government service.

Whatever were you thinking of? What's the matter with you, anyhow? How come you could see a letter from any country on earth asking Uncle Sam for some moolah and get careless with it for a minute? Bear in mind this was not a loan of a few millions. This ran into the billions and even a beginner in government service today should know that when a request for billions from America it wants action. How would the United States stand in the eyes of the world if the idea got around that it took its time making loans?

What would the larger nations think if they were induced to believe that in Washington there were people capable of getting a request for a few billion dollars and setting it aside for a few months? Even holding such a request overnight is bad enough, but pigeon-holing it? Are you in your right mind? Are you a trustworthy American? Are you fit for any position in Washington?

If you want my opinion, you had ACCOMPANIES. Nobody in government service these days could sidetrack such a request all alone. It is too big a mistake for one person to make.

Out with the names of these fellow conspirators! What petty minds, what low guardians of the Treasury! What base persons with revolutionary ideas about economy said to you, "This can wait!" Come clean! It is your only hope.

Yours,
ELMER TWITCHELL.

We understand that when Hank Greenberg, husband of Carol Gimbel, department store heiress, faces a pitcher now he says, "Lemme see your merchandise."

In fact he may even ask, as the ball is tossed, "Do you want this delivered or will you take it with you?"

But, of course, a pitcher can retort, "Fifth floor for swings and eye glasses!"

Thar She Springs!

By Truman Twill

That expression on the human face at the time of year is not from stomach ache, but hope springing eternal in the human breast. This is more like a mild heartburn.

It starts with hallucinations of landscapes like the dream stuff in the property-gorgeous magazines and touches all the bases for a home run in garden spades doubled, redoubled and vulnerable.

The grass in the front yard this year is going to be velvety and green, thick as hair on a dog's back, springy and resilient, tough and hardy and all else that is desirable in grass. It is not going to pop out by the end of June and be full of black plantain and dandelion.

The grass in the back yard that was wipped out by football players, fox-and-geese players, and itinerant children looking for mud to walk through is going to come back from the grave. No one will have to give it another thought, or apologize for it, or prepare to finance a new stand of turf.

The shrubbery that was dead or dying last fall and couldn't have been expected to survive the winter will snap out of it and grow all over the place, instead of looking like a cluster of refugees from a starvation camp. Everybody will say, "My, what beautiful shrubbery!" instead of averting their eyes and changing the conversation.

The hardy perennials will live up to their name and be hardy, instead of waiting to be coaxed out of the ground, then expecting to be coaxed to stay out of the ground and put out a few blooms for the principle of the thing. It will be necessary to spend more money on them before the end of the summer than you did on them.

There will be an early growing season for things in the vegetable garden. The lettuce will be crisp, and the tomatoes will look like the pictures in the catalogue instead of the gnarled specimens that have survived in previous years among the cinders, brick bats and rusty cans.

The apple tree will have apples on it. The rhubarb will not be rubbery. The peonies will have flowers. Grass will decide to grow with no one free will on the horizon. There will no longer be in demand by photographers looking for examples of soil erosion.

There will be no worms in the radishes, no beetles on the beans, and the early June peas will be prolific. Nature will not have to be coaxed to put on its finest performance, but will rise eagerly to the challenge. For a few delicious weeks, that's the hope that springs eternal. It is not painful, and almost never substantiated—just a passing fancy like spring fever.

Lumber Men Threaten Bolt

By The Associated Press

ATLANTA, Ga.—Southern lumber dealers have threatened rebellion against area OPA officials if the present price-control policy is not ended.

Richard Ben Wand, associate publisher of the Southern Lumber Journal, in Chicago recently declared that if the OPA does not act, it will either be ignored or "most lumber will be disposed of in the black market."

An OPA official in the Atlanta area explained that the objectionable action to arise from the fact that a price adjustment last fall for lumber millers forces the dealer to absorb the cost, and that dealers complained they cannot get lumber to sell.

Add Shortages: Textbooks

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, N. J.—You probably won't hear many students complaining about this, but publishers of school books are so far behind "it will take years" to catch up with the demand.

William W. Livingston of Hillsdale, editor-in-chief of a large textbook publishing firm, says the reasons are: shortage of paper, an increased demand and catching up with the trenchment years during the depression when schools got along with what books they had.

MRS. E. F. MAYFIELD RITES TO BE MONDAY

Marion Resident Dies at Home on Blake Avenue.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hattie Porter Mayfield, 72, wife of E. F. Mayfield of 575 Blake avenue will be conducted at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. The rites will be held in the Marie J. Hughes mortuary on Mt. Vernon avenue by Rev. Dennis Mathert, pastor of First Wesleyan Methodist church. Burial will be in Marion cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7:30 tonight.

Mrs. Mayfield died in her home about 12:30 p. m. Friday. She had been ill a month and suffered from a heart ailment.

Born Feb. 27, 1874, in Port Wayne, Ind., she was a daughter of James R. Porter and Sarah Claypool Porter, the father a native of Delaware county and the mother of Marion county. June 2, 1892, she married Mr. Mayfield at Norton. A resident of Marion many years, she came to Marion from Kibbourn, O.

Surviving with her husband are the following children, Raymond Mayfield, Paul Mayfield and Mrs. Ruth Coburn, all of Marion, Mrs. Norma Cresson of Detroit, Mich., Eugene Mayfield of Ellwood City, Pa., and Edgar Mayfield of New Castle, Pa. 13 grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Addie Riley of Kent, O., and Mrs. Irene McDowell of Los Angeles, Calif.

HOME HUNGRY GIP'S SWAMP LOAN OFFICE

CLEVELAND, March 9—Anxiety of war veterans to purchase homes and the acute shortage of houses available for rent has caused a rapid increase in loan applications by ex-servicemen in northern Ohio Veterans Administration loan officials reported today.

Applications by veterans for rent advance loans, provided by terms of the GI Bill of Rights, have increased at such a sharp rate that the Cleveland V. A. staff has been working 12 hours daily and looking for office quarters that could accommodate more staff workers, V. A. spokesmen said.

The Vets Administration has approved 3,500 loans for about $10,000,000 to ex-servicemen in northern Ohio counties under the GI Bill and the volume of applications has been increasing daily.

A "galloping inflation" of real estate values in northern Ohio has been curbed by a conservative policy of property appraisal adopted by banks and lending agencies in the area, but such a policy also has added difficulty to the veterans' search for homes, V. A. spokesmen said.

GRAND JURY INDICTS 4-TIME OHIO HUBBY

ELYRIA, O., March 9—Ex-soldier Leonard E. Smith was under indictment by the Lorain county grand jury today on a bigamy charge involving marriages to four teen-age girls in two years.

The grand jury indictment returned yesterday against Smith, former amateur heavyweight boxer who served as a physical trainer in the Army, charged that the 26-year-old, honorably discharged veteran pursued this "marital whirl" in the last two years.

Two years ago, he married wife No. 1, a 17-year-old girl from Ashland, O., but the marriage was annulled.

Wife No. 2, also 17, obtained a divorce from Smith a few months after their marriage, and then he married wife No. 3, the former Helen Neddington, 17-year-old school girl of nearby Willard, Feb. 26, 1945.

The former Miss Neddington had filed a suit for divorce but withdrew the suit when a notice of Smith's fourth marriage to Donna Mae Duffield, also 17, appeared in a newspaper last Nov. 23.

Mississippi Divides U. S. Weather Zones

The Mississippi valley was a dividing line today between unseasonably warm temperatures in most of the west and sharply dropping temperatures in the east.

A fast-moving cold front swept to the Atlantic coast, tumbling the mercury 15 to 20 degrees within 24 hours in the east.

Extensive rains preceded the frigid air in New York, New England, and the southeast.

Behind the cold front, weather was turning milder in the midwest although it was still cold in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa. Farther south, temperatures in the sixties were expected in Texas and Oklahoma.

The far west remained usually warm with clear skies.

FIVE PRIESTS TAKE PART IN RITES FOR LEO STUBER

Included Among 14 Present for Requiem Masses

Five clergymen took part in funeral services for Leo Stuber of 229 North Prospect street in St. Mary Catholic church Friday morning when solemn requiem high mass was celebrated. They were included in a group of 14 priests present at the services.

Rev. Father Theodore Stuber of St. Columbian church at Wilmington, son of Mr. Stuber, was the celebrant. Rev. Father Bonet of St. Basil church, Marion, was master of ceremonies; and Rev. Father William J. Spickerman, pastor of St. Anthony church, Bridgeport, was officiating. Other priests present included Rev. Monsignor Martin Vorley of St. Raphael church, Springfield; Very Rev. Monsignor Henry T. Waldhaus, director of Rita School for Deaf-Mutes, Cincinnati; Rev. Father Joseph Tremlman of St. Augustine church, Jamestown, O.; Rev. Father John L. Kelly of St. Paul's church, Yellow Springs, O.; Rev. Father John H. Brockman of St. Raphael church, Springfield; and Rev. Nicholas Rolin O.M.C. of Our Lady of Mercy seminary.

Also present from out of town were Mrs. Anna Mary August and James George and Miss Cleo Gross, all of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Petrosky Jr., of Cincinnati; Mrs. Margaret LaVelle, Robert LaVelle and Mrs. Thomas Smith of Dayton; Dr. and Mrs. William H. Stallings and Thomas Egan of Akron; Theodore Perlicks of Jackson, O.; and Mr. and Mrs. W. Zinsmayer and Mrs. Amos Berry of Fostoria.

Active pallbearers were Carl Werley, Francis Norris, William Brown, Mr. Ferrieks, Dr. Stallings and Joseph Dunn, and honorary pallbearers included Henry Drake, James Cusick, Joseph Miller, Henry Yechem, Michael O'Brien, L. Blutz and John VonKanel. Burial was in St. Mary cemetery. Mr. Stuber died in his home Monday.

State Legion Officer Speaks Here Tuesday

Don W. Schoeppe, state vice commander of the American Legion, will speak at a meeting of Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162 at the Lorain Dugout Tuesday night at 8. All veterans are invited to attend. The occasion will honor the new membership mark of the post which has now reached 500.

In charge of membership for Ohio, Mr. Schoeppe has brought the total for the state up to 100,000 this year. Tuesday night will be his first appearance in Marion. His home is at Warren, O.

REPORT RED WITHDRAWAL

CHUNGKING, March 9—Central News Agency said today Russian troops had withdrawn completely from Mukden and that lines had broken out in several parts of the city, largest in Manchuria. There was no elaboration of the reference to fires.

49,000 More Deaths Listed in China

CHUNGKING, March 9—A Chinese dispatch reported today that famine and pestilence had claimed another 49,000 lives in southern Hupeh province adjoining Hunan province, the "rice bowl of China," where even worse conditions were described by UNRRA officials this week.

A semi-official dispatch said the Central government garrison and civilians in Tungting, southernmost section of Hupeh province, faced starvation. The dispatch blamed a 14-day siege by Communists. There was no elaboration or confirmation from other sources.

Meanwhile, the Kuomintang (National party) congress was held by Minister of Food Hsu Yen that China faced a serious food shortage and that supplies were needed urgently from the United States and Canada.

LUNCHEON MEETING

The Grand Army Hall held a potluck luncheon Friday noon at the home of Mrs. Maude Obenour of 362 Commercial street. Prizes went to Mrs. Leona Bishop and Mrs. Pauline Snyder. A St. Patrick's Day program followed the dinner.

PATTON ESTATE VALUED

LOS ANGELES, March 9—Gen. George S. Patton Jr., who died last Dec. 21 of traffic accident in Jersey received in Germany, left an estate legally documented "in excess of $10,000," but unofficially valued at several hundred thousand dollars in real property and securities.

HAMMOND AND HOME-MADE CAR Why worry about auto strikes or shortages, at least Edward C. Hammond doesn't. A retired lumber merchant at Newton, Mass., Hammond used a bit of Yankee ingenuity and made his own auto, which he calls the "Weep." The parts, some of which are over 20 years old, came from 16

autos, a trailer, tractor, moving machine and a canvas sail. It has all the accessories including a wicker basket to hold golf clubs, broom and shovel. The "Weep's" series of horns and fog lights would do credit to a battleship, and according to Hammond, shown at the wheel, it travels 50 miles to the gallon of gas will do 60 miles per hour. ## Los Angeles Sees $175,000 Postwar "Dream" House

LOS ANGELES, March 9—Fritz Burns, head man of Henry Kaiser's mass home-building venture, who opened his own "postwar house" to the public this week, disclosed today that the two-bedroom dream home had cost him $175,000.

The structure is equipped with all the electronic and mechanical gadgets a housewife would want: "packaged unit" bathrooms and kitchen; a fully automatic laundry that tosses clothes out ready to iron; dust-precipitating air conditioning; and even a revolutionary germ-killing lighting system.

"In the first place," Burns said, "the lot (on fashionable Wilshire boulevard) cost $75,000. The rest was eaten up in research and experimentation. We became perfectionists and asked manufacturers to make things they never had made before. Our only consolation is that we now know more about building postwar houses than anyone else."

When Burns, a wealthy, 46-year-old contractor, started building the house a year ago he had no idea he ever would become associated with Henry Kaiser.

"I'm not sorry I built it, but our job is to turn out good houses as fast as we can to relieve the nation's need," he said.

MRS. MORRIS DIES AT HOME IN LARUE

Passes Away at Age of 92; Funeral Monday.

LARUE, March 9—Mrs. Marian L. Morris, 92, died at 8:30 p. m. Friday at her home in Larue, following an illness of two months.

She was born April 3, 1853 in Hardin county to Mr. and Mrs. Amos Clements, both natives of Ohio. She was married to Curtis Morris who preceded her in death. She had resided in Larue 14 years and before that lived in the country near there. She was a member of the Larue Methodist church.

Surviving is a granddaughter, Mrs. Mildred Ellis of Upper Sandusky, and a sister, and a brother, Mrs. Flora Myers of Kenton and Charles Clements of Hephburn.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday at 2:30 p. m. at the church by Rev. Clarke Davis. Friends may call at the Boyd and Ford funeral home in Larue until 1:30 Monday when the body will be removed to the church.

THEODORE B. OCHS JOINS STAFF OF CITY LOAN CO.

Concludes Terminal Leave After Service in Army.

Theodore B. Ochs, who recently ended his terminal leave as a captain in the legal department of the Army Air Corps, has joined the staff of the City Loan Co. here. He will be stationed here until May 1 when he will go into the home office at Lima. On terminal leave since Jan. 24, when he received his discharge at Patterson Field, near Dayton, he went on inactive duty March 2.

In service 43 months, Mr. Ochs was at Godman Field, Ky. for 20 months and Seymour Johnson Field, Goldsboro, N. C. for more than a year. Later he was stationed at Selfridge Field, Mich. Before going into service, Mr. Ochs was a practicing attorney here and former assistant state attorney general and city solicitor.

Mrs. Ochs and their family, who have been with him, are making their home here for the present.

LITERATURE OF BIBLE SUBJECT OF TALK HERE

O.W.U. Professor Speaks at Meeting of Class.

The Bible contains some of the finest literature in the English language, but its literary merit is often obscured by the attention paid to its religious significance. Professor Roy Diem of the speech department of Ohio Wesleyan University told the Wednesday Noon Bible class at the Y.M.C.A. Wednesday.

The Bible is not solely a religious book, Professor Diem said, but contains material of literary importance was recognized long before its inclusion in the Scriptures.

Although Biblical literature is mainly famed for its poetry, prose passages such as the story of Ruth David's fight with Goliath and Paul's voyage in Acts 27th chapter equal the narrative skill of modern masters such as Joseph Conrad, Diem declared. He divided the literature of the Bible into four classifications, pre-Biblical poems, prose, drama, and lyric poetry.

The King James version of the Bible has its faults, too, Prof. Diem said. Among them are the hard-to-read type; the unique chapter and verse arrangement, which sets the Bible apart from other books and makes it hard to read; and the manner in which poetry is printed like prose without regard for its rhyme or meter.

Mr. Diem, a student at Ohio Wesleyan, sang the 23rd Psalm and the Lord's Prayer at the meeting, accompanied on the piano by Miss Dorothy Dull, also an Ohio Wesleyan student.

D. T. Mills, Marion county superintendent of the school was program chairman of the group for the month of March at the meeting.

Florida Woman Has Dream Warning of Son's Strange Death

SARASOTA, Fla., March 9—A coroner's jury investigation into deaths of two fishermen aboard a pilothouse craft in the Gulf of Mexico developed a story of strange coincidence.

Mrs. Nellie Lantus of St. Petersburg told the jury she was awakened by a powerful, pre-dawn dream that her 50-year-old son, Ray, was in trouble.

Impelled by the dream, Mrs. Lantus said she boarded a bus for Sarasota, arriving two hours before Ray and Frank Nish, 52, commercial fishermen of Nokomis, a nearby village, were found dead.

The boat, without guide, chugged around the gulf for an hour early yesterday before running aground on the beach at Treasure Island, about 18 miles south of Sarasota.

The coroner's jury returned a finding last night of death from unknown causes, but concluded the most likely was carbon monoxide from the open engine.

When the boat first was boarded, it appeared that the hatch between the pit and covered cabin had been left open. County Physician Dr. F. L. Hall testified he could find no external marks of violence and that death seemed to be from natural causes, probably carbon monoxide gas.

Warren Tie-Up Nipped

WARREN, Bus service was normal today in this industrial city of 45,000 after a threatened tie-up of the city's buses was averted by agreement of the Warren Transportation Co. to grant retroactive pay adjustments to 50 union drivers.

Officials of the local AFL-Amalgamated Association of Street Car, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees union, who threatened a city-wide walkout today if bus pay checks were not in pay envelopes, reported last night the dispute had been settled in a company-union conference.

COLUMBUS, O., March 9—Gov. Frank J. Lausche today nominated Col. Loren G. Windom of Reynoldsburg, who campaigned with Ohio's 37th division in the Pacific, to represent Ohio on the National Guard Bureau's committee on national policies.

Windom is now assistant U. S. district attorney in Columbus. Adjt. Gen. Donald F. Pancoast said he would leave tomorrow night for Washington to present Windom's nomination to the war department. He also will submit Ohio's plan for reorganizing its National Guard unit.

The state plan contemplates 26-153 officers and men, compared with the National Guard Bureau's recommendation of 22,533. Pancoast said the difference resulted from Ohio's recommendation that the old 166th infantry, part of the Rainbow division in World War I, be reactivated as a combat team.

The 166th's identity was lost in World War II. The state also wants an anti-aircraft artillery unit. Pancoast said.

New Seizures In Iran Are Reported

TEHRAN, March 9—The northern portion of Gilan province, from the Soviet border to Shefard, a distance of approximately 50 miles, was reported by reliable diplomatic sources today to have been annexed by the government of Russian-occupied Azerbaijan province.

An official in the United States embassy said the report "undoubtedly is true." Foreign observers have expected such an action since Tehran newspapers last month reported that 600 "trespassers" had occupied Karanrud and attacked Shefard, on the Caspian coast.

The last reports received in Tehran said a column threatened Pahlevi but halted some distance north of that Caspian port on the approximate language boundary between Gilan province. To the north, residents speak a Turkish dialect also used in Azerbaijan, while to the south an ancient Persian dialect is spoken.

LAST SESSION HELD BY RETAIL GROUP

Conference for Executives and Employees Held.

Final session of the retail conference series was held today in the Chamber of Commerce offices. Fifteen retail store executives and employees attended the two-hour meetings during the last week to discuss pricing, management and retailing problems. The conference, part of a nationwide program, was organized here by E. A. Roth, coordinator of distributive education in the city schools.

Objective of the course is to obtain a more efficient distribution of goods.

The best methods of management are demonstrated and discussed and can be passed on by the executives attending the sessions to people in their employ. The course was first used by the army, then industry, and has been revamped for the distribution field by leading merchandising experts.

The course is being given throughout Ohio under the direction of Miss Marguerite M. Lora, state supervisor of distributive education. Chairman for the conferences here was Miss Margaret A. Castle, itinerant instructor for distributive education in European stores and has supervised merchandise hook-up for Hollywood studios.

Similar programs for executives and sales people are planned for the future here. Information can be secured from E. A. Roth at Harding High School.

Local executives called at the conference were M. E. Barnes, manager of Usher-Phillips, Inc.; William Coffey, manager of Kline Department store; C. E. Jennings, manager of W. T. Grant Co.; E. Quaintance, office manager of Usher-Phillips, Inc.; Don Carson, salesman at J. O. Penney Co. store; Don Flach, assistant manager of Wiant's book store; C. E. Lehman, department manager of Usher-Phillips; Frank Heinen, manager of Cussins and Fears Co.; Miss Edna Kinsler, personal director of W. T. Grant Co.; Philip and E. A. Roth, coordinators of distributive education in Marion city schools.

In Loving Memory
Of Mary E. Snyder, who passed away one year ago, March 9, 1945. In the cemetery, softly sleeping, Where the flowers gently wave, Like the one we love to deary. But when we could not save. You gave no one a last farewell. You said goodbye to none. A weary heart had ceased to beat. Before we knew you'd gone. And when the evening shades are falling, And we are sitting all alone, In our hearts there comes a longing. If you could only come home. You shall never be forgotten. Never shall your memory fade. Sweetest thoughts will always linger. Around the grave where you are laid. The Family.
